

Pueblo is a grassroots community based organization dedicated to working with youth and the immigrant community to combat the growing racism and xenophobia within the state of Arizona. Founded on the principles that liberation and justice will only come about through consistent education, organizing, and direct action, Pueblo seeks to become a catalyst for revolutionary change.

PUEBLO INVITES YOUTH AGES 13-20 TO:

JUSTICE ON THE BORDER: MINUTEMEN,
MILITARIZATION, AND DEATHS ON THE MIGRANT TRAIL

What are the motivations of migrants coming to Arizona? What are the motivations of anti-immigrant groups like the Minutemen? Come learn about the policies that led to the militarization of the border and the funneling of migration through Arizona through a personal history of being born on the Arizona-Sonora border. Topics to be discussed are the vigilante movement in southeastern Arizona, the roles of borders, immigration controls, the movement of people, and the role for youth in Phoenix.

Where: 1306 E. Van Buren (13th Street and Van Buren)

When: Thursday, May 22nd, 6 p.m.
